

EXTRA.

EIGHT PAGES.

BURNING THAT DRESS.

Lizzie Borden's Sunday Aot Described by Miss Russell.

An Interesting Day in the Murder Trial at New Bedford.

Dr. Bowen Tells of Prescribing Double Morphine Doses for Lizzie.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., June 8.—The Court-House was opened before the regular time for the Borden trial this morning, and at the main entrance the inquisitive females who had awaited their breakfasts hurriedly or dispensed with them entirely made one of the prettiest rushes ever seen outside of college premises.

Miss Borden was in her seat fifteen minutes before the Court came in, and eagerly looked over the contents of a big, official-looking envelope, which she afterwards passed to ex-Gov. Robinson.

DR. BOWEN TO THE STAND.

The first witness called for was Mrs. Churchill, a previous call for Dr. Bowen having been read, but she not being present, Dr. Bowen was put on.

He said: "I have lived at my present residence twenty-one years. It is diagonally opposite the Borden house. I have been the family physician nearly all that time. I recall the day of Aug. 4, 1892. I saw Mr. Borden the day before about 6 o'clock, going down the street.

"I think it was after 11 and before 11:30 that I returned to my house in the morning of the murder. When I returned Mrs. Bowen spoke to me, and in consequence of that I went to the Borden house. I saw Mrs. Borden and Mrs. Churchill there. They were in the side hall, just at the end of it, near the kitchen door. I said, 'Lizzie, what's the matter?' She said, 'Father has been killed, or stabbed. I asked, 'Where is your father?' She said, 'In the sitting-room.'

A PICTURE OF THE MURDERED MAN.

Here a photograph of the murdered man was shown and identified. During the showing of the picture Lizzie kept her eyes riveted on the floor, never once glancing up.

Witness continued, said: "As I went to the sitting-room, Lizzie followed me part way, and as I turned to go out after finding her father was dead, I asked her if she had seen any one and she said no. I asked her where she had been, and she said, 'In the barn to get some iron.' She said she was afraid her father had had trouble with some of his tenants. Then I asked her to get something to cover Mr. Borden and Bridget brought me a sheet.

"The sheet was brought from Mr. Borden's room, and the key was taken from the mantel, I believe, where it was usually kept. After the sheet was used Lizzie asked if I would telegraph to Emma, and I did so. Up to that time nothing had been said of Mrs. Borden, but just before I went to the telegraph office somebody asked where Mrs. Borden was, and Lizzie said she had received a note to visit a sick friend, and had gone out.

"As I was going I met Officer Allen. I know it was he, but I can't tell how long it was after I went there that I met him. On my return from the telegraph office I met in the kitchen hallway Mrs. Churchill, and she said they had found Mrs. Borden upstairs in the front room. She said I had better go up and see her.

"I went through the dining-room and sitting-room, and up the front stairs, stopping a moment at the door of the guest chamber. At that point I looked over the bed and saw the prostrate form of Mrs. Borden; then I was standing in the doorway. I went around at the foot of the bed, placed my hand on her head and found a wound in the head; then I felt her pulse and found she was dead.

"I never said to anyone that she had died of fright or in a faint, but I will say this. My first thought was that she had fainted. I went downstairs and told the people Mrs. Borden was dead; that I thought she was killed by the same instrument with which Mr. Borden was killed, and that I considered it fortunate that Lizzie was out of the way."

downstairs first, after seeing Mrs. Borden's body, Lizzie was in the kitchen. Mrs. Churchill, Miss Russell, witness's wife and Bridget were fanning her and working over her. She afterwards went into the dining-room, and witness told her she had better go to her room, where he afterwards saw her.

MORPHINE FOR LIZZIE BORDEN.

Cross-examination by Mr. Adams brought out the fact that the witness had prescribed morphine for the prisoner to allay nervous excitement; first in ordinary doses, afterwards in double doses, continued to the time of her arrest and afterwards when in the station-house and before the examination at the inquest, and that morphine so prescribed had a tendency to affect the memory and produce hallucination.

The examination lasted a little over an hour.

Witness Sullivan was recalled at 10:10, and under rigid cross-examination by ex-Gov. Robinson denied that she saw Lizzie in tears when she called her downstairs just after the murder, and denied she had ever stated so, as shown by her testimony in the preliminary hearing.

Bridget testified later: "While I was living in the family there was a robbery there."

Government objected to answer, but it was allowed.

"It occurred in the day, about twelve months before."

The Court asked why it was material, occurring so far back, and ex-Gov. Robinson explained that the robbery occurred in the middle of the day, just when all the family were there. (Ruled out.)

Witness said, in answer to questions: "There was a burglary in the barn also, but it was in the night-time." The answer was excluded, exceptions being noted in both cases.

MRS. CHURCHILL A WITNESS.

Mrs. Adelaide Churchill was called and said she had been a resident of Fall River forty-three years. "I have lived here for forty-three years," she said. "I do not know any one else who lived in the Borden house. I have been on terms of special intimacy with the Borden family."

"On the morning of Aug. 4 I saw Mr. Borden first about 9 o'clock. I was then in the kitchen; he was by his steps, but while he was there he went to the side door of my house on the left side of the steps. That morning I went out and purchased something for dinner."

"When I reached my house I saw Bridget Sullivan going across the street from Dr. Bowen's to her house; she was white and going rapidly. I went in the side door of my house on the left side of the steps. That morning I went out and purchased something for dinner."

"When I reached my house I saw Bridget Sullivan going across the street from Dr. Bowen's to her house; she was white and going rapidly. I went in the side door of my house on the left side of the steps. That morning I went out and purchased something for dinner."

"When I reached my house I saw Bridget Sullivan going across the street from Dr. Bowen's to her house; she was white and going rapidly. I went in the side door of my house on the left side of the steps. That morning I went out and purchased something for dinner."

"When I reached my house I saw Bridget Sullivan going across the street from Dr. Bowen's to her house; she was white and going rapidly. I went in the side door of my house on the left side of the steps. That morning I went out and purchased something for dinner."

"When I reached my house I saw Bridget Sullivan going across the street from Dr. Bowen's to her house; she was white and going rapidly. I went in the side door of my house on the left side of the steps. That morning I went out and purchased something for dinner."

"When I reached my house I saw Bridget Sullivan going across the street from Dr. Bowen's to her house; she was white and going rapidly. I went in the side door of my house on the left side of the steps. That morning I went out and purchased something for dinner."

"When I reached my house I saw Bridget Sullivan going across the street from Dr. Bowen's to her house; she was white and going rapidly. I went in the side door of my house on the left side of the steps. That morning I went out and purchased something for dinner."

"When I reached my house I saw Bridget Sullivan going across the street from Dr. Bowen's to her house; she was white and going rapidly. I went in the side door of my house on the left side of the steps. That morning I went out and purchased something for dinner."

"When I reached my house I saw Bridget Sullivan going across the street from Dr. Bowen's to her house; she was white and going rapidly. I went in the side door of my house on the left side of the steps. That morning I went out and purchased something for dinner."

"When I reached my house I saw Bridget Sullivan going across the street from Dr. Bowen's to her house; she was white and going rapidly. I went in the side door of my house on the left side of the steps. That morning I went out and purchased something for dinner."

"When I reached my house I saw Bridget Sullivan going across the street from Dr. Bowen's to her house; she was white and going rapidly. I went in the side door of my house on the left side of the steps. That morning I went out and purchased something for dinner."

"When I reached my house I saw Bridget Sullivan going across the street from Dr. Bowen's to her house; she was white and going rapidly. I went in the side door of my house on the left side of the steps. That morning I went out and purchased something for dinner."

"When I reached my house I saw Bridget Sullivan going across the street from Dr. Bowen's to her house; she was white and going rapidly. I went in the side door of my house on the left side of the steps. That morning I went out and purchased something for dinner."

"When I reached my house I saw Bridget Sullivan going across the street from Dr. Bowen's to her house; she was white and going rapidly. I went in the side door of my house on the left side of the steps. That morning I went out and purchased something for dinner."

"When I reached my house I saw Bridget Sullivan going across the street from Dr. Bowen's to her house; she was white and going rapidly. I went in the side door of my house on the left side of the steps. That morning I went out and purchased something for dinner."

"When I reached my house I saw Bridget Sullivan going across the street from Dr. Bowen's to her house; she was white and going rapidly. I went in the side door of my house on the left side of the steps. That morning I went out and purchased something for dinner."

"When I reached my house I saw Bridget Sullivan going across the street from Dr. Bowen's to her house; she was white and going rapidly. I went in the side door of my house on the left side of the steps. That morning I went out and purchased something for dinner."

"When I reached my house I saw Bridget Sullivan going across the street from Dr. Bowen's to her house; she was white and going rapidly. I went in the side door of my house on the left side of the steps. That morning I went out and purchased something for dinner."

"When I reached my house I saw Bridget Sullivan going across the street from Dr. Bowen's to her house; she was white and going rapidly. I went in the side door of my house on the left side of the steps. That morning I went out and purchased something for dinner."

"When I reached my house I saw Bridget Sullivan going across the street from Dr. Bowen's to her house; she was white and going rapidly. I went in the side door of my house on the left side of the steps. That morning I went out and purchased something for dinner."

"When I reached my house I saw Bridget Sullivan going across the street from Dr. Bowen's to her house; she was white and going rapidly. I went in the side door of my house on the left side of the steps. That morning I went out and purchased something for dinner."

Lizzie and I visited each other; when I went to her house she received me generally in the guest room.

"On Wednesday night, Aug. 3, Lizzie came to see me. She came alone and stayed until about 9 o'clock. During the evening we spoke about going to Marion. I think when she came in she said: 'I have taken your advice and am going to Marion.' I said: 'I'm glad you are going.' I spoke about her having a good time, but she said: 'I don't know; I feel distressed; when I was at Marion the other day the girls were laughing, and they asked me what was the matter with me.'

"Then she spoke of her father and mother and her being sick the night before, but Bridget was not sick. I wasn't sick enough to vomit," Lizzie said. She heard the others vomiting and stepped to the door to help them. She spoke of bread and the milk, and we talked about that and I said it couldn't possibly be the bread, because others would have been sick."

"Lizzie spoke about believing her father had enemies, and spoke of the man who came there and wanted to hire a place, and of the quarrel. Then she spoke of seeing a man about the place the night about the barn being broken into and about the burglary in the house."

"I said that I never heard of the burglary before, and Lizzie said her father had forbidden them to speak of it. She described the robbery to me, and said it was done in Mrs. Borden's room. She was afraid somebody would burn the house down and that she was afraid to go to sleep at night. Lizzie also spoke about the manner of the father treating his friends, and how badly he used Dr. Bowen at one time."

"On the morning of Aug. 4, while I was at work, Bridget Sullivan came to me. I changed my dress and went at once to the Borden house, and saw Lizzie downstairs. She told me, when I asked her about going to the barn and her reason, that she went to the barn to get a piece of iron to fix her screen."

"I don't remember that she spoke about the note, but I heard it talked over. I saw no signs of her having on two dresses. When she went upstairs I was with her, and she said she had an undertaker, and I went down and spoke to Dr. Bowen. When I went back I saw her coming out of Emma's room tying the strings of her wrapper."

"At one time when I was in the room I saw her go to the closet door, unlock it and go in. I do not know whether Mr. Fane was in that closet or not. I was in Mr. Borden's room when the officers were searching. They found the door leading into Lizzie's room fastened and pulled it open. I stayed at their house until Monday."

"I saw her coming out of Emma's room tying the strings of her wrapper."

"At one time when I was in the room I saw her go to the closet door, unlock it and go in. I do not know whether Mr. Fane was in that closet or not. I was in Mr. Borden's room when the officers were searching. They found the door leading into Lizzie's room fastened and pulled it open. I stayed at their house until Monday."

"I saw her coming out of Emma's room tying the strings of her wrapper."

"At one time when I was in the room I saw her go to the closet door, unlock it and go in. I do not know whether Mr. Fane was in that closet or not. I was in Mr. Borden's room when the officers were searching. They found the door leading into Lizzie's room fastened and pulled it open. I stayed at their house until Monday."

"I saw her coming out of Emma's room tying the strings of her wrapper."

"At one time when I was in the room I saw her go to the closet door, unlock it and go in. I do not know whether Mr. Fane was in that closet or not. I was in Mr. Borden's room when the officers were searching. They found the door leading into Lizzie's room fastened and pulled it open. I stayed at their house until Monday."

"I saw her coming out of Emma's room tying the strings of her wrapper."

"At one time when I was in the room I saw her go to the closet door, unlock it and go in. I do not know whether Mr. Fane was in that closet or not. I was in Mr. Borden's room when the officers were searching. They found the door leading into Lizzie's room fastened and pulled it open. I stayed at their house until Monday."

"I saw her coming out of Emma's room tying the strings of her wrapper."

"At one time when I was in the room I saw her go to the closet door, unlock it and go in. I do not know whether Mr. Fane was in that closet or not. I was in Mr. Borden's room when the officers were searching. They found the door leading into Lizzie's room fastened and pulled it open. I stayed at their house until Monday."

"I saw her coming out of Emma's room tying the strings of her wrapper."

"At one time when I was in the room I saw her go to the closet door, unlock it and go in. I do not know whether Mr. Fane was in that closet or not. I was in Mr. Borden's room when the officers were searching. They found the door leading into Lizzie's room fastened and pulled it open. I stayed at their house until Monday."

"I saw her coming out of Emma's room tying the strings of her wrapper."

"At one time when I was in the room I saw her go to the closet door, unlock it and go in. I do not know whether Mr. Fane was in that closet or not. I was in Mr. Borden's room when the officers were searching. They found the door leading into Lizzie's room fastened and pulled it open. I stayed at their house until Monday."

"I saw her coming out of Emma's room tying the strings of her wrapper."

"At one time when I was in the room I saw her go to the closet door, unlock it and go in. I do not know whether Mr. Fane was in that closet or not. I was in Mr. Borden's room when the officers were searching. They found the door leading into Lizzie's room fastened and pulled it open. I stayed at their house until Monday."

"I saw her coming out of Emma's room tying the strings of her wrapper."

"At one time when I was in the room I saw her go to the closet door, unlock it and go in. I do not know whether Mr. Fane was in that closet or not. I was in Mr. Borden's room when the officers were searching. They found the door leading into Lizzie's room fastened and pulled it open. I stayed at their house until Monday."

"I saw her coming out of Emma's room tying the strings of her wrapper."

"At one time when I was in the room I saw her go to the closet door, unlock it and go in. I do not know whether Mr. Fane was in that closet or not. I was in Mr. Borden's room when the officers were searching. They found the door leading into Lizzie's room fastened and pulled it open. I stayed at their house until Monday."

"I saw her coming out of Emma's room tying the strings of her wrapper."

"At one time when I was in the room I saw her go to the closet door, unlock it and go in. I do not know whether Mr. Fane was in that closet or not. I was in Mr. Borden's room when the officers were searching. They found the door leading into Lizzie's room fastened and pulled it open. I stayed at their house until Monday."

"I saw her coming out of Emma's room tying the strings of her wrapper."

"At one time when I was in the room I saw her go to the closet door, unlock it and go in. I do not know whether Mr. Fane was in that closet or not. I was in Mr. Borden's room when the officers were searching. They found the door leading into Lizzie's room fastened and pulled it open. I stayed at their house until Monday."

"I saw her coming out of Emma's room tying the strings of her wrapper."

"At one time when I was in the room I saw her go to the closet door, unlock it and go in. I do not know whether Mr. Fane was in that closet or not. I was in Mr. Borden's room when the officers were searching. They found the door leading into Lizzie's room fastened and pulled it open. I stayed at their house until Monday."

DECLARE'S RACE.

P. J. Dwyer & Son's Two-Year-Old Wins the Control Stakes To-Day.

GOOD SPORT AT MORRIS PARK

Yemen, Roller and Midnight, Among the Winners of the Day's Events.

MORRIS PARK RACE TRACK, June 8.

Weather and program harmonized at Morris Park to-day. Both were fine, and the combination drew a large crowd of speculatively inclined persons.

The track was in perfect condition, and the sport promised to be excellent. Originally there were twelve carded to go in the first race, a sprint of six furlongs. Scratches reduced the field to five, and the race promised to be a duel between Correction and Yemen.

Certainly it was a duel in the betting ring before the race, for both horses received heavy support and shifted about in the betting.

Correction was second, and Yemen, second choice, beat him out after a sharp brush through the stretch. Yemen was the winner, and Correction was second.

At the finish, however, both were ready to lie down and die. Yemen's driver and jockey, Billy Lakeland, came out riding. Yemen, Lakeland, and trotted him for a quarter.

Lakeland was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day. He was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day. He was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day.

He brought back a flood of recollections to the old-timers. Many took the episode as a tip and went in to play the race. He didn't run up to expectations. Roller, second choice, beat him out after a sharp brush through the stretch.

Correction was third, and Yemen, second choice, beat him out after a sharp brush through the stretch. Yemen was the winner, and Correction was second.

At the finish, however, both were ready to lie down and die. Yemen's driver and jockey, Billy Lakeland, came out riding. Yemen, Lakeland, and trotted him for a quarter.

Lakeland was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day. He was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day. He was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day.

He brought back a flood of recollections to the old-timers. Many took the episode as a tip and went in to play the race. He didn't run up to expectations. Roller, second choice, beat him out after a sharp brush through the stretch.

Correction was third, and Yemen, second choice, beat him out after a sharp brush through the stretch. Yemen was the winner, and Correction was second.

At the finish, however, both were ready to lie down and die. Yemen's driver and jockey, Billy Lakeland, came out riding. Yemen, Lakeland, and trotted him for a quarter.

Lakeland was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day. He was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day. He was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day.

He brought back a flood of recollections to the old-timers. Many took the episode as a tip and went in to play the race. He didn't run up to expectations. Roller, second choice, beat him out after a sharp brush through the stretch.

Correction was third, and Yemen, second choice, beat him out after a sharp brush through the stretch. Yemen was the winner, and Correction was second.

At the finish, however, both were ready to lie down and die. Yemen's driver and jockey, Billy Lakeland, came out riding. Yemen, Lakeland, and trotted him for a quarter.

Lakeland was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day. He was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day. He was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day.

He brought back a flood of recollections to the old-timers. Many took the episode as a tip and went in to play the race. He didn't run up to expectations. Roller, second choice, beat him out after a sharp brush through the stretch.

Correction was third, and Yemen, second choice, beat him out after a sharp brush through the stretch. Yemen was the winner, and Correction was second.

At the finish, however, both were ready to lie down and die. Yemen's driver and jockey, Billy Lakeland, came out riding. Yemen, Lakeland, and trotted him for a quarter.

Lakeland was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day. He was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day. He was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day.

He brought back a flood of recollections to the old-timers. Many took the episode as a tip and went in to play the race. He didn't run up to expectations. Roller, second choice, beat him out after a sharp brush through the stretch.

Correction was third, and Yemen, second choice, beat him out after a sharp brush through the stretch. Yemen was the winner, and Correction was second.

EULALIA IN CHICAGO.

The Higinbotham Apparition at the Breakfast.

FINE RACE DAY ON THE HILL.

Big Business in Books on Morris Park and Gloucester.

GUTTENBURG RACE TRACK, June 8.

The promise of good sport, quick action and big money attracted thousands of spectators to the Morris Park race track to-day.

The weather was perfect, and the track was in excellent condition. The race was a duel between Correction and Yemen.

Certainly it was a duel in the betting ring before the race, for both horses received heavy support and shifted about in the betting.

Correction was second, and Yemen, second choice, beat him out after a sharp brush through the stretch. Yemen was the winner, and Correction was second.

At the finish, however, both were ready to lie down and die. Yemen's driver and jockey, Billy Lakeland, came out riding. Yemen, Lakeland, and trotted him for a quarter.

Lakeland was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day. He was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day. He was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day.

He brought back a flood of recollections to the old-timers. Many took the episode as a tip and went in to play the race. He didn't run up to expectations. Roller, second choice, beat him out after a sharp brush through the stretch.

Correction was third, and Yemen, second choice, beat him out after a sharp brush through the stretch. Yemen was the winner, and Correction was second.

At the finish, however, both were ready to lie down and die. Yemen's driver and jockey, Billy Lakeland, came out riding. Yemen, Lakeland, and trotted him for a quarter.

Lakeland was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day. He was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day. He was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day.

He brought back a flood of recollections to the old-timers. Many took the episode as a tip and went in to play the race. He didn't run up to expectations. Roller, second choice, beat him out after a sharp brush through the stretch.

Correction was third, and Yemen, second choice, beat him out after a sharp brush through the stretch. Yemen was the winner, and Correction was second.

At the finish, however, both were ready to lie down and die. Yemen's driver and jockey, Billy Lakeland, came out riding. Yemen, Lakeland, and trotted him for a quarter.

Lakeland was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day. He was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day. He was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day.

He brought back a flood of recollections to the old-timers. Many took the episode as a tip and went in to play the race. He didn't run up to expectations. Roller, second choice, beat him out after a sharp brush through the stretch.

Correction was third, and Yemen, second choice, beat him out after a sharp brush through the stretch. Yemen was the winner, and Correction was second.

At the finish, however, both were ready to lie down and die. Yemen's driver and jockey, Billy Lakeland, came out riding. Yemen, Lakeland, and trotted him for a quarter.

Lakeland was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day. He was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day. He was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day.

He brought back a flood of recollections to the old-timers. Many took the episode as a tip and went in to play the race. He didn't run up to expectations. Roller, second choice, beat him out after a sharp brush through the stretch.

Correction was third, and Yemen, second choice, beat him out after a sharp brush through the stretch. Yemen was the winner, and Correction was second.

At the finish, however, both were ready to lie down and die. Yemen's driver and jockey, Billy Lakeland, came out riding. Yemen, Lakeland, and trotted him for a quarter.

Lakeland was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day. He was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day. He was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day.

He brought back a flood of recollections to the old-timers. Many took the episode as a tip and went in to play the race. He didn't run up to expectations. Roller, second choice, beat him out after a sharp brush through the stretch.

Correction was third, and Yemen, second choice, beat him out after a sharp brush through the stretch. Yemen was the winner, and Correction was second.

At the finish, however, both were ready to lie down and die. Yemen's driver and jockey, Billy Lakeland, came out riding. Yemen, Lakeland, and trotted him for a quarter.

Lakeland was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day. He was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day. He was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day.

APPRaiser's DUTIES.

Mr. Cooper Describes Them to the Investigators.

Invoices Frequently Signed by Meads of Other Departments.

The Higinbotham Apparition at the Breakfast.

FINE RACE DAY ON THE HILL.

Big Business in Books on Morris Park and Gloucester.

GUTTENBURG RACE TRACK, June 8.

The promise of good sport, quick action and big money attracted thousands of spectators to the Morris Park race track to-day.

The weather was perfect, and the track was in excellent condition. The race was a duel between Correction and Yemen.

Certainly it was a duel in the betting ring before the race, for both horses received heavy support and shifted about in the betting.

Correction was second, and Yemen, second choice, beat him out after a sharp brush through the stretch. Yemen was the winner, and Correction was second.

At the finish, however, both were ready to lie down and die. Yemen's driver and jockey, Billy Lakeland, came out riding. Yemen, Lakeland, and trotted him for a quarter.

Lakeland was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day. He was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day. He was a crack jockey in his day, and he was not a crack jockey in his day.

He brought back a flood of recollections to the old-timers. Many took the episode as a tip and went in to play the race. He didn't run up to expectations. Roller, second choice, beat him out after a sharp brush through the stretch.